Vintage Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The only peace: to know my place And what I now must do, Striding with the light full in my face, And gravel in my shoe. Bright, elemental and as dexterously brilliant as ever, John Fuller s latest collection takes as its subject our ends and our origins . Here are songs, serenades, literary cameos, an ode to a golden anniversary, a long letter to an old friend, and two majestic sequences: one dedicated to the Welsh woman of the woods, Mary Price; the other, sun-drenched sonnets that keenly observe the natural world against the flavour of our own mortality . With wit, warmth and wisdom, Gravel in My Shoe playfully balances the light and shade of life, in full awareness of its passing but with a spring in its step nevertheless. It shows us, ultimately, that life is too short, but poetry s eternal .
