Regional Traffic Incident Management Programs Part 3: The Case for Incident Management Incidents on the road network can have a significant impact on the lives of citizens and on the economic health of communities. Effective management of traffic incidents can help to mitigate their impact. Problems Addressed by Incident Management Two important ways that effective management of traffic incidents can mitigate the incident impact are: By promoting rapid, well organized and coordinated clearance of incidents, thus improving safety of responders, victims, and the motoring public By reducing the impact of the incident on regional travel and travelers. The incident scene is a complex and dangerous environment. It exposes both victims and responders to any combination of moving traffic, hazardous materials, fire and electrical hazards, damaged vehicles and debris, and stressful weather conditions. Any safe and coordinated actions that can be taken to reduce the length of exposure and safely control the scene have...
