We speak not in the spirit of controversy, not by political inspiration, but as servants of the Most High God, we speak the truth in love, concerning things which make for peace. In the midst of war - surrounded by scenes that pain the souls of all good men - deploring the evils which are inseparable from national contention - we feel most deeply impressed by the conviction that, for our own sake, for the sake of our posterity, for the sake of humanity, for the sake of the truth, and above all for the sake of our Redeemer s kingdom, it behooves us to testify of certain things in our beloved land which seem neither to be understood nor appreciated by our enemies, nor yet clearly appreciated by Christians of other nations. We put forth this address, after much prayer, solemnly invoking the blessing of Almighty God, and committing what we say to that Providence by which we trust we are directed, and by whose authority and power the governments of the earth stand or fall.
