Sage Publications Ltd, United Kingdom, 2002. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 2nd Revised edition. 236 x 191 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A unique and indispensable work that serves both as a basic introduction to the disarmament scene and a reference book for experts - Disarmament Times This compendium of the history and achievements of arms control and disarmament efforts is unique in its kind and is likely to remain so. This for three reasons: first, because of its unparalleled comprehensiveness; second, because of the outstanding quality of its presentation, and, third, because of its author, Jozef Goldblat, one of the world's leading experts in the field. This triad makes the updated Second Edition of Arms Control: The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements a must for all concerned with international security in general and arms control in particular - Curt Gasteyger, Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva The thesaurus of arms regulation and disarmament, a precious tool for negotiators and treaty makers - Ambassador V Petrovsky, Former Secretary-General of the Conference on Disarmament Being the most comprehensive and authoritative compilation and analysis of arms control agreements available, this is an indispensable reference volume for students and practitioners of arms control and international security. The author has spent a lifetime in the study and practice of international security affairs: where international law and arms control agreements are concerned, there is no one better qualified than him - Sverre Lodgaard, Norwegian Institute of International Affairs, Oslo The revised and updated edition of Arms Control: The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements contains the most authoritative and comprehensive survey ever published of the documents related to arms control. All major agreements reached since the second half of the nineteenth century through to mid-2002 are critically analysed and assessed. The assessment is...
