Healing Under His Wings

By Jacqueline Jones, MS Jacqueline Jones

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Salvatore Vuono (illustrator). 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Camille Calhoun lives in service to God. Twenty years of dedicated service to the Department of Juvenile Justice as a social worker was her ministry. No one else could boast of the fifteen percent recidivism rate for the children to whom she prescribed her services. However, the continuous revisions of the rules for rehabilitation began to wear down her resilience against the powers that be. After praying to the Heavenly Father for guidance, talking with her parents, best friend, and desiring to do more, she decided to resign and open her home for foster care. Utilizing the investigative tools of her father's company and her sister's FBI connections, she was able to check into the background of her prospective children. Both she and her best friend held Master's degrees in Sociology which would be essential in rehabilitative training. Her mother, Carmen, would supply the spiritual guidance and motherly coaching. For Camille, Mama Cee-Cee, as she is affectionately called by all of her children, had developed a formula that worked: GOD + Love...
