As I watched the children in our Congregation, one day, I had one of those Ah Ha moments. Jesus taught about how simple a child's faith was and told us we had to have the same sort of faith. I asked myself, how can we have the faith of a child, when we present ourselves as all grown up Christians. This book takes a simple look at Messianic Judaism; not to convert anyone, but to allow you to understand the simplicity of God's call on those who embrace this type of worship. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
