Donna Brown, a Creole African American is a thirty something Chicago native and an ambitious local news anchor new to Dallas. Coming from a broken home, she craves approval and acceptance from men. On her journey she encounters several obstacles including an internet stalker and a fiancé with a wandering eye. Aside from her rollercoaster love life, she is faced with additional challenges. Her wayward younger sister who now claims to be, born again, after years of substance abuse leaves Chicago with her son to move in with Donna. Besides the challenge of keeping her weight down for the cameras, Donna oftentimes wonders whether the man on her birth certificate is really her father. At age ten Donna witnessed a vicious fight between him and her mother. Not mine, were the last two words Donna heard him shout as he pointed a finger at her. Not knowing whether he is right or wrong lingers in the back of her mind until she stumbles upon the truth and experiences her, aha moment. This item ships from multiple locations.
